INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Perry Rhew,
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a film production and post production firm. It sought to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a lead visual effects engineer. The director determined that the petitioner had not established its continuing financial ability to pay the proffered wage and denied the petition, accordingly.

Review of U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) electronic records indicates that, subsequent to the filing of the instant motion, the beneficiary obtained immigrant status as a lawful permanent resident on April 13, 2010. Because the beneficiary has obtained lawful permanent resident status, further pursuit of the matter at hand is moot.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed, based on the beneficiary's lawful permanent resident status.
